Child Expulsion Schedule

Children in the Study Hall program can only be expelled in the following ways.

Immediate expulsion

If their actions are a danger to staff, themselves, or other children they will be immediately expelled from the program.

Childs Actions for Expulsion

Consistent in appropriate behavior such as: fighting with other children or staff, hitting another child or staff, uncontrollable tantrums, and angry outburst, not following staff instructions or rules of the program.

Schedule of expulsion for similar actions

Three write ups within a 30-day period gets a 1-day suspension. Upon return they have an additional 30 days to change their behavior if written up (once) again then they get a 3-day suspension, upon return if the behavior doesn't correct and they get one more write up then they will get a 5-day suspension, if they come back and the behavior fails to change then they will be expelled immediately.
